The procedure to facilitate ease of travel for persons traveling to Guyana for employment purposes are as follows:

- The traveler will need to be in possession of the original copies of their documentation, i.e., their Employment Contract and their Employment Visa on Arrival Letter issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs in Georgetown.
- The Employment Visa on Arrival Letter must be Apostilled by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation in Georgetown.
- The said letter should be transmitted to the potential employee who will then submit same to the High Commission of Guyana in New Delhi for attestation at a cost of Rupees 1,000/USD13 per letter.

Further, if the traveler is not based in New Delhi, the document will have to be sent to the Mission for attestation and then returned via courier (the courier charges will be borne by the traveler)

- The confirmed travel itinerary should also be submitted to the High Commission. This will be sent, along with scanned copies of their apostilled and attested documents, to concerned airline (KLM/ Air India), who will then route same to the relevant airport from which the travelers will depart.

It should be noted that a return ticket to India (single ticket for outward and homebound journey) is required as per the advice of the airlines.

- The traveler must present their attested documents and employment contract, in the original form, to the airline when checking in.
